M. E. AID AT BIRTH-DAY LUNCHEON

M. E. auditorium on El Prado furnished the setting for an elaborately planned luncheon which 80 ladies attended Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being the 11th birthday of M. E. Aid. The tables were beautifully decorated with tallman roses and fern and lighted tapers added to the effect. Hostesses for the occasion included Mesdames R. F. Hogue, Harold Wilson, W. G. Phillips, G. L. Mowry, J. O. Bishop, O. E. Hall, L. Snyder, Fred Lessing, George Morgan, Reid McCrae, D. C. Turner, Frank Carr, J. Kiefer, Frank Weiss, E. Robinett and M. B. Lane. A beautifully arranged program was enjoyed beginning with the doxology and blessing by Rev. Kemp Winkler, followed by community singing of "Happy Birthday." Past presidents of the organization were then introduced. Rev. Winkler gave an interesting talk.

A solo, "Estrellita," by Miss Eva Lopez was enjoyed. The speaker, Miss Katharine Higgins, of Plaza Community Center, Los Angeles, was then introduced. She chose as her subject, "Birthdays." Miss Eileen Maskrey followed with two humorous readings, "Uncle Josh on Depression" and "The Toast." The program was concluded by Mrs. A. J. Maskrey, Jr., who sang a group of old songs including "Last Rose of Summer" and "Long, Long Ago."

Following the luncheon, a general meeting was called to order at 2:30 p. m. by Mrs. J. B. Edwards, president.

O. E. S. TO MEET TONIGHT

Farewell party for pastor. As a farewell tribute to Rev. Father D. Hurley, who is leaving Torrance this week to take up residence in Los Angeles, members of his congregation met at the rectory on Engracia avenue Tuesday evening and a social evening was enjoyed. A gift of money was presented at this time. Father Hurley will be replaced by Father Kennedy of Chula Vista.

Dr. and Mrs. N. A. Leake and family, with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Burdick of Gardena, spent Sunday at Claremont.

W. B. A. AT PASADENA

Celebrating their 40th birthday anniversary, the W. B. A.'s entertained with a rally at Pasadena last week-end. The organization, originally a California institution, was founded by Miss Vina West, a school teacher. Beginning with a deficit of $500.00, the benefit organization has assets today in excess of $34,000.00.

At a banquet given Friday evening at Vista del Arroyo hotel at Pasadena, a large birthday cake, presented by the pioneer Los Angeles club, was cut.

Those from Torrance who attended the banquet included Mrs. H. E. Reeve, Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. H. W. Roberts, Mrs. Anna Stadig, Mrs. Ida Oligas, Mrs. Sue Mason, Mrs. H. E. Curler and Mrs. Ralph Howe. Frances Farridge, supreme secretary, of Port Huron, Michigan, was present and an escort composed of financial secretaries of Southern California attended the supreme officer. At Civic Center, Pasadena, a rose garden pageant was given Saturday. Included in the pageant were Arliss Fossum, Barbara Lee Watson, Jean Howe, Jackie Lowry, Shirley Harris and Barbara Montaine. A special feature of the entertainment was a fairy dance number by Marcia Curler, a niece of Mrs. H. E. Curler.

FETED ON NATAL DATE. Honoring Hurum E. Reeve on the occasion of his birthday, Mrs. Reeve entertained with a dinner party Tuesday evening. Cut flowers were used on the dining table at which places were set for the honoree and Mrs. Reeve, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howe and children, Eric and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reeve and son, Buddy, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Broce and children, Barbara and Marlene. Following dinner, cards furnished entertainment for the balance of the evening.

BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED. The birthday anniversary of Willis M. Brooks provided the incentive for a delightful party at his home on Portola avenue when a group of 32, composed of O. E. S. officers and their trailers, surprised him Thursday evening. A Spanish motif was used throughout decorations and menu. Bridge furnished diversion for the occasion and prizes of Mexican pottery and potted succulents were awarded to Mrs. J. O. Moore and W. J. Scribner; consolations to Mrs. Scribner and Fred Knudson, while a combination prize was presented to Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Murphy.
